

WILL STIR UP THE LIQUOR DEALERS

Bill Prohibits Brewers From Taking Out More Than One License.

INSPECTION OF OILS

Senate Passes Bill Amending Law Relative to Municipal Court of Rock County.

DOINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE

Madison, Wis., Feb. 12.—A bill to repeal what is known as the corrupt practices act, the law which requires candidates to file statements of their campaign expenses, was filed in the assembly today by Spratt. The bill is simply a repealing measure and provides nothing in the place of the law. Mr. Spratt also introduced a bill repealing the law providing for the inspection of illuminating oils.

A bill which will stir up the liquor interests was introduced by Mr. Rossman. It prohibits brewers from taking out more than a saloon license and would cut off the practice of brewers securing licenses and assigning them to saloon keepers.

The senate passed the bill amending the law relative to the municipal court of Rock county.

Agriculture in the School.

The expected bill for the introduction of a course in agriculture and domestic science in the rural schools of the state was sent by Senator Hatton. It creates State Supt. Harvey a special commissioner to prepare a course of study and outline a plan for the training of teachers in that line of educational work. Mr. Harvey as special commissioner is to devise a plan for training teachers along these lines but the bill does not provide for the establishment of such schools. That will be provided for, it is said, in a bill to be introduced subsequently. The bill makes an appropriation but does not fix the salary that Mr. Harvey is to receive for the work.

State Immigration Board.

The practical wiping out of the state board of immigration through the resignation of Secretary Taylor will probably bring forth a protest from the northern counties. Two years ago there was an attempt to abandon the work, but the northern counties raised such an uproar that the legislature passed a new bill. Secretary of State Froehlich, who has been a member of the last two boards, says that if there is to be another board it ought to be on new lines. He thinks that it should not be a one-man board, as it has been in the past, but should be a board of men who could give their time and attention to it and pursue the work along broader lines.

DEWET HAS CROSSED INTO CAPE COLONY

Capetown, Feb. 12.—General DeLisle is in pursuit of a great body of Boers in a large valley in north-western Cape Colony. A big battle is imminent.

AWFUL MURDER IN MILWAUKEE TODAY

A South Side Man Stabs His Wife Through the Heart and Cuts His Own Throat.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 12.—A horrible murder and suicide occurred on the South Side this morning. Carl Voy, a laborer, killed his wife by stabbing her through the heart with a knife. He then tried to stab a child which looked like the first husband of the woman, chasing the little one into the yard but he failed to get her. He then went back to the house and cut his own throat. Thirteen children are left, the youngest boy, two months old was being nursed when Voy stabbed his wife.

SHIPS GIVEN UP AS LOST.

Believed 230 Men Have Perished with Grain Fleet on Pacific.

Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 12.—Underwriters and shippers have given up all hope of seeing any of the big overdue fleet which has been so anxiously awaited at Portland. Over 230 lives and property valued at $1,200,000, it is feared, have been wiped out of existence within less than sixty days. The ships given up are: Andratta, Bertha, Otto Gildmeister, Cape Wrath, Rathdown, Ardnamurchon, Illala. Added to this list was the total loss of the Pyrenes from Tacoma with a cargo of wheat and barley. It is considered almost a certainty that some of the ships have been sent to the bottom, as they left Portland in time to catch the full force of terrific gales.

Lash for Beaters of Wives.

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 12.—All efforts toward abolishing the pillory and whipping post as means of punishment in this state have failed before the legislature. Today the house committee reported unfavorably the bill abolishing the pillory, which had passed the senate. The senate has passed the bill punishing wife-beaters with the lash, and this measure will undoubtedly go through the house.

WISCONSIN BOYS FOR THE U. S. ARMY

List of Officers Who Have Been Recommended to Be First Lieutenants in Regular Army.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 12.—Recommendations for appointments in the new army among the Wisconsin soldiers were filed today by Senators Spooner and Quarles. The list sent to the war department covers all the appointments that it will be possible for the state to obtain and it is probable that some of these receiving the endorsements of the senators may not be appointed, as it is still undecided how large a quota the state will have. The list includes the following named officers, most of whom are now in volunteer service in the Philippines, and in no case will a commission of higher grade than first lieutenant be given any of the officers mentioned.

Senator Spooner presented the memorial of the Wisconsin legislature urging the adoption of a law to regulate the sale of oleomargarine.

CHICAGO TRAIN IN A DITCH.

One Killed and Several Injured Near Decatur, Ind.

Huntington, Ind., Feb. 12.—The second section of Erie train No. 3 was wrecked half a mile from Wren, east of Decatur, at about 2 o'clock this morning. An axle of the engine broke while running fifty miles an hour and the entire train was ditched, several cars turning over on their sides. There were five coaches filled with Italians bound for Chicago.

Charles Finney, fireman, jumped and was killed instantly. Richard Esson, engineer, and F. M. Day, conductor, escaped with slight bruises. The colored porter was badly hurt, but will live. There were no serious injuries among the immigrants.

The dead fireman was unmarried and his home was at Valparaiso. A large number of surgeons from this city and Decatur are at the wreck looking after the wounded.

Train Strikes a Surry.

Pittsburg, Feb. 12.—An extra freight train on the Sewickley branch of the Pennsylvania railroad today struck a surry, occupied by William Maxwell, a farmer, and his family. Mr. Maxwell and daughter Mary were dangerously injured and may die. His wife and daughter Hannah were badly cut and bruised, but will recover.

The accident was caused by the whiffletree breaking and the surry backing down on to the railroad track.

L. B. Lees and E. M. Co's of Evansville are in the city today on business.

MR. HALL'S ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 58 SHOULD BE KILLED BY COMMITTEE

If the Bill Becomes a Law It Will Paralyze Industries and Drive Manufacturers From the State of Wisconsin.

The bill known as 58 A. introduced by Assemblyman Hall and now pending before the legislature is not one of the tax commission's railroad bills but is a bill that will work havoc to the industries of the state, should it become a law. The bill was freely discussed at a representative meeting of the Janesville manufacturers last evening and it was decided to be pernicious in the extreme and detrimental not only to the business interests of Janesville, but also to every manufacturing center in the state. In fact the bill discriminates against the state.

It is a bill attempting to regulate railroads, not only in their charges, but in their methods of doing business as well. Section 3 of the bill provides that, "It shall be unlawful for any common carrier, subject to the provision of this act, to make or give any preference to any particular person, company, firm or corporation or locality or any particular description of traffic."

That means in plain English, abolishing all transit rates, such as are now given to millers on wheat, where they are allowed to stop the wheat in transit, mill it, and forward it to the market as flour at a single rate. It would drive the Blodgett Milling Co. out of business, as well as many other millers in the state.

It means the doing away with what is known as commodity on unclassified rates, where large manufacturers, like the Janesville Machine company are given a rate on steel that enables them to compete with other points. It would mean a loss to this firm alone of many thousand dollars.

It means the destroying of any sort of a favor that the railroad company might be disposed to show to any locality in the state. It frequently happens that a railroad wants to encourage manufacturing at points on their lines. They sometimes donate lots and draw material for factory buildings at reduced rates. The bill provides that all of this shall be stopped.

At a rough estimate it would cost the city of Janesville fifty thousand dollars and the state at large several millions. It would paralyze industries and be a constant bar to new enterprises.

Every business man in the state should enter a protest against it.

The meeting last evening appointed a committee of three—J. A. Craig of the Janesville Machine Co., T. O. Howe of the Janesville Cotton Co., and D. W. Holmes of the Blodgett Milling Co. These gentlemen will confer with the business men and formulate a plan of protest against the bill.

The business interests of the state demand that this bill should be killed. The people have much more at stake than the railroads.

POLICEMAN'S STORY MADE A SENSATION

Tells How Hamilton Admitted to Him As Having Killed Leonard Day At West Hotel.

Minneapolis, Feb. 12.—Frank Hamilton was in fine spirits this morning. He thinks that the state has failed to make a strong case. Bennett was recalled and denied having at the side of the body accused Hamilton of murdering Day.

Patrolman Rooney who took Hamilton to jail said that the latter remarked: "Let the law take its course; I'll abide by the consequences; I killed him but it was in self defense."

A dead silence prevailed while this testimony was given. Hamilton was visibly affected and Rooney followed with another statement alleged to have been made by Hamilton to him in which Hamilton acknowledged that both he and Day had been intimate with the same girl, that he had heard bad reports of Day and had told it to the girl and she had told it to Day. Rooney's story plainly told caused a sensation. He repeated what Hamilton had said regarding his and Day's relation to the girl mentioned.

$25,000,000 FOR CARNEGIE.

Part Payment for His Stock in the Great Pittsburg Concern.

New York, Feb. 12.—A financier said last night that he had heard on good authority that Andrew Carnegie will receive $25,000,000 in cash as part payment for his stock in the Carnegie company, and that J. Pierpont Morgan and his associates have raised the money and it is ready to be paid to Carnegie. The same man said he understood arrangements were practically complete for a transfer of the Carnegie properties to Morgan, and that when it is done nothing more will be attempted in the way of amalgamating the steel interests for the present. The departure of Charles M. Schwab, president of the Carnegie steel company, from Pittsburg is interpreted as a sure indication that the sale of the vast holdings of Andrew Carnegie to the Morgan-Rockefeller syndicate has been practically closed. Before his departure Mr. Schwab told a friend that the published report of the immense transaction was substantially correct. Joshua Rhodes, one of the powers of the American Tin Plate company, which is to form part of the giant combination under Mr. Morgan's "community of interest" plan, came here from Pittsburg yesterday. When Mr. Rhodes learned that Mr. Schwab had left he started back to Pittsburg, after a stay of only a few hours. It is expected that before this week is ended Mr. Morgan will make formal announcement of the purchase of the Carnegie steel company and of the unification under the "community of interest" plan of all corporations in the steel and kindred industries. Consumption of the purchase, it is thought, will bring the general offices of the Carnegie company here from Pittsburg and consequently an immense amount of ready money.

HARVEY RETAINS PRESENT POSITION

Will Not Be Head of the Milwaukee Schools—He Likes Office He is Now In.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 12.—State Superintendent Harvey will not be the next city superintendent of schools here. As expected by his friends, Professor Harvey has announced positively that he will not be a candidate for the superintendency of the Milwaukee schools, nor would he take the place were it offered to him.

While there has been no tender of the place to him, it was well understood that if Mr. Harvey would accept there was no doubt of his unanimous election. But he gave up a much more desirable place than the city superintendency when he took the nomination for state superintendent of schools. He did this for the reason that he saw many reforms in the educational system of the state that ought to be made and hoped to be able to carry them through.

He is right in the middle of the task that he undertook, and no one who knew his devotion to the educational interests of the state, believed that for a moment he would give up a work of so much importance to accept the superintendency of the Milwaukee city schools. The choice therefore will have to be made from other candidates.

WHITE MEN HANG NEGRO.

George Carter, Alleged Assaulter, Lynched at Paris, Ky.

Paris, Ky., Feb. 12.—George Carter, a negro, paid the extreme penalty of his crime against Mrs. W. E. Boid, committed about three weeks ago, at the hands of a mob here. About 2 o'clock a. m. about thirty determined men appeared at the jail door and demanded admittance of Jailer Kiser. He refused and the door was burst open. The jailer was overpowered in an instant, the keys secured, and in less than five minutes Carter was in the hands of the mob. He refused to make any statement. It was only the work of a minute to place a rope around his neck, and he was then half-dragged to the entrance of the courthouse. The rope was then thrown over the iron arch leading to the entrance, and, while several pulled on the ropes, others lifted his body. He died by strangulation. The mob then quietly dispersed. During the whole affair there was not a loud word spoken. Before the men dispersed they pinned a card on the body of the negro, bearing this inscription: "This will be the fate of all negroes who attack white women."

NOT TO BE SO GAY.

Mourning Will Make Parliamentary Opening Less Joyous.

New York, Feb. 12.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says:

"On Jan. 21, 1886, when Queen Victoria for the last time opened parliament in person, practically every balcony from Buckingham palace to Westminster was systematically draped with crimson, relieved by cords and tassels of yellow, and the government offices in Whitehall were gayly festooned, streamers of flags stretching from lamp to lamp. As London is still in mourning, it is, however, not expected that the public buildings will be uniformly draped or decorated next Thursday, when King Edward drives from Marlborough House to the house of lords."

"Every flag will probably fly mast high, but no decorations are anticipated other than small shields displaying the coat-of-arms of Westminster and London, which will be affixed to lamp posts along the route. Given fine weather, this drawback notwithstanding, the spectacle is sure to be a magnificent one."

"The ancient state coach is in the hands of a firm of coach builders in Longacre, undergoing repairs, which are no doubt sadly needed, considering that the vehicle has been lying idle since the death of the prince consort forty years ago."

The petition sets forth that 15,000 passengers, 200,000 tons of freight and $20,000,000 in treasure are annually transported over this route.

BILL IS AIMED AT THE STEEL TRUST

An Effort to Remove Tariff From All of the Steel Products.

SURPRISE IN CONGRESS

Mr. Babcock of Wisconsin Throws a Bomb Among Cohorts of Monopoly.

SAY IT CANNOT GO THROUGH

Washington, Feb. 12.—There was some surprise when Representative Babcock of Wisconsin introduced in the house late last evening a bill to put steel rails, billets, iron, wire nails, car wheels, etc., upon the free list.

Although Mr. Babcock is a member of the committee on ways and means, other members of the committee say that he introduced this bill without consulting any of them. They add that the committee will not report the bill to the house.

Mr. Babcock thinks differently. He believes that the committee will report it and that the house will pass it.

Mr. Babcock says that his bill was aimed at those articles manufactured by the steel trust which has just been organized. This he said was the most colossal industrial combination that he had ever known. This organization was formed to prevent competition in trade and to regulate prices.

"I believe," said Mr. Babcock, "that this bill will go through the committee on ways and means flying if the committee has a meeting and takes it up. It is only by such a bill that congress can do anything at his time to regulate this gigantic trust."

The items included in the repealing bill are found in schedule C of the Dingley act, section 123 to 132 inclusive, and sections 135 and 136, 137, 160, 162 and 172, and comprising the principal articles of manufacture in the iron and steel trade.

Members of the ways and means committee say that it is absurd to suppose that the steel trust wants the tariff maintained on its product. To the contrary it is claimed that when the Dingley law was under consideration Mr. Carnegie and a representative of Oliver Brothers appeared before the committee and said that they did not want any protective tariff whatever.

The tariff helped the smaller manufacturers while the trust is able to take care of itself. If free trade squeezes out the smaller concerns the trust expects to get the benefit thereof in the end.

ELEVATED ROAD TO LAKE GENEVA

Milwaukee City Council Asked for a Franchise to Build a New Electric Railway.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 12.—At a meeting of the common council last night the ordinance granting a franchise to the Milwaukee, Burlington and Lake Geneva railroad company to enter the city on elevated tracks was introduced. It provides for an elevated railway to be operated by electrical or other power an exception being made of steam. The purpose of the company is to construct a railway from Lake Geneva by the way of Burlington, Racine county, to a point in the city of Milwaukee at the south side of Wisconsin street, where it intersects with Jefferson.

The ordinance does not provide any time limit for the franchise, but it fixes the rate of fare at five cents. Clarence S. Darrow of Chicago is the principal counsel of the new company and drew the ordinance.

THE LIBRARY BUILDING

The Agitation for a Permanent Home for the Institution Strikes a Popular Chord.

A number of communications have been received, seconding the motion of The Gazette for a library building. The full measure of the need seems to grow the more the subject is agitated. These letters call to mind the early struggles of the founders of the institution, when it was but a puny, feeble infant hardly able to stand upon its feet.

Now it is a permanent fact, and likely to remain so, but none the less the time has come for it to move from its present cramped quarters to such a home as the citizens of Janesville may contemplate with pride.

It is hardly a credit to a city of the size and wealth of Janesville that such an institution as the public library should be tucked away in an obscure corner and be less efficient than it should as an instrument for general culture simply from lack of room.

Nothing now but a handsome and commodious building will meet the requirements, and it cannot come any too soon.

HOYT'S BRASS MONKEY.

Popular Farce Warmly Applauded at the Myers Grand Last Night.

Hoyt's "Brass Monkey" drew a large and appreciative audience to the Myers Grand last night. This farce, which has not been seen here for several seasons, was one of the author's earliest and most successful plays; sometimes thought to be one of his best. Built upon a popular superstition it is full of ludicrous and surprising complications, laughable episodes, mirth provoking situations, melodious music, a series of happy color schemes and brilliant ensembles.

The company, while possibly not so great as has graced many of the Hoyt specialties, was found thoroughly capable, particularly in the matter of specialties, and won the best approval of the audience.

"Jonah" was well played by Mr. J. K. Wesley. His methods are less obtrusive than the other members of the company. Miss Mazie Trumbull is a clever and sprightly "Baggage." The man who stands through an almost entire act encased in a bearskin, in order to allow "Jonah" a few jokes, must have an uncomfortable time of it. He ought to make his escape after Jonah is through with him or at any rate sit down. The ladies of the company are pretty, have good voices, sing well and wear pretty costumes. All things considered "A Brass Monkey" is an enjoyable performance.

Take Rocky Mountain Tea. See it exterminate poison. Feel it revitalize your blood and nerves and bring back that happy, joyous feeling of boyhood days. 35c. Sold at Smith's pharmacy, kodak agents, next to postoffice.

A GREAT IMPROVEMENT.

Nature's Ways Often Hard to Understand.

Man's Best Gifts Disguised by Disagreeable Exterior.

It Takes Science to Reveal Nature at Her Best.

In many ways Nature is right just as she is, and when the hand of man attempts to improve upon her works, a botchy job, to say the least, often results.

There are, however, a great many instances where by a little human help Nature's best gifts are doubly enhanced in value and brought forth from obscurity in a manner that is causing this century to be known as one of progress.

There is nothing in the way of a discovery that will prove of greater benefit to man in general, and to the inhabitants of this part of America in particular, than Vinol, which represents an old and valuable remedy introduced in a new and practical form. Vinol is being hailed by physicians and patients alike as a glorious intervention of Providence for annihilating certain diseases of a wasting nature and prolonging life, and its discovery is a fitting climax, coming as it does at the end of a century that will go down into history as remarkable for its advancement.

Vinol, as it is sold today, is fast becoming what all other great inventions soon become, a positive necessity that makes the world wonder how it ever existed without it.

Cod Liver oil, on account of the peculiar medicinal properties which it contains, has been to science for years the most efficient of all specifics, for throat lung and bronchial troubles, and all wasting diseases. The layman however has appreciated the fact as forcibly as the professional, that this same remedy was often rendered practically useless on account of its disagreeable odor and taste until it began to appear as though cod liver oil might eventually be omitted from the Pharmacopoeia.

The invention of Vinol has saved this wonderful medicine, not as we have known it, to be sure, but in its new form, which is nothing more nor less than the identical, potent, remedial factors that have made the cod's liver famous. This new discovery consists only in finding a way of extracting the curative principles of the cod liver, which, once obtained, are dissolved in a mild, delicious and delicate table wine.

And so to us is given this old remedy in its new form, doubly efficient, absolutely tasteless, and denuded of its greatest and most serious objection, the fatty matter itself, which has always precluded the use of cod liver oil in cases where the digestive apparatus had become weakened. Vinol is with us to stay, and to do good that as yet is incalculable.

DOINGS OF THE LAW MAKERS.

ILLINOIS.

Monday, February 11.

Senator Stubblefield and Representative Scrogg, chairman of the subcommittee on Congressional apportionment of the Senate and House, respectively, have returned to Springfield. It is expected that a majority of the subcommittees will be there soon, when work will be resumed on the Congressional map. The members of the subcommittees spent a few days in Chicago after the adjournment last Friday morning. There they discussed the Cook county plans and in the proposition to attach Will county to Cook. Senator Stubblefield said that while there is some opposition to the plan a majority of those spoken to favored the proposition. He does not anticipate that it will become necessary to change the lines already drawn, so far as that particular section of the state is concerned. The Senator says Cook county must either consent to this addition or be satisfied with nine districts, and he thinks the leaders will accept the former proposition.

Arrangements have been completed for the trip of Governor Yates and his staff to Washington to attend the inaugural ceremonies on March 4. The party will go by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad from Chicago, on a special train, which will leave there at 2 p. m. on Friday, March 1.

INDIANA.

Monday, February 11.

The Calumet River canal scheme was before the Legislative committee in the afternoon, but final action was deferred until return of Senator Agnew from Valparaiso. Delegations were present from Hammond and Whiting to protest against the passage of the bill, their chief objection being that it did not limit the area to be assessed for the canal. This is the objection the railroads have been using, and supporters of the measure agreed to amend the bill so as to define the areas to be assessed.

Developments in the struggle between the railroad and canal interests in Indiana show that the issues at stake are much larger than at first appeared. For several years coal and other interests in the western part of the state have looked forward to the day when it would be possible to open water communication between the Wabash River and Lake Michigan at Hammond or East Chicago. Indiana has always viewed Illinois' exclusive control of the lake trade with jealousy, and hoped to develop a great port at Hammond or East Chicago. This feeling is general throughout the Wabash valley. The country lying between the lake and the Wabash River at Lafayette, where the canal probably would join the river, is supplied with water so that there would be little trouble in obtaining a sufficient amount to maintain the canal at any reasonable level.

Winsted, Conn., Feb. 12.—Miss Winifred Cook, aged 23, a teacher in the W. L. Gilbert Home for Children, was shot and instantly killed in the home today by her suitor, John T. Hayes, formerly lieutenant of company I, 4th regiment, C. N. G. Hayes afterward turned his revolver upon himself, inflicting three bullet holes in his forehead. His condition is serious, but there is a chance of his recovery. Jealousy is supposed to have been the cause for the act.

Fire Causes Loss of $1,500,000.

Rochester, Pa., Feb. 12.—At 12:05 o'clock this morning fire started in the cooper department of the National Glass company's outside the limits of Rochester. It occupied seven acres of ground and employed 1,500 persons. The loss is put at $1,500,000.

President McKinley is slowly recovering from grip and its after effects. George J. Flannery was relieved of the awful pains in his head in fifteen minutes, by the use of Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. Now he is rapidly recovering at his home in Buffalo, N. Y.

Speaker Henderson is again in his chair in the House of Representatives after a severe attack of the grip.

J. C. Helfrey, foreman of the Westinghouse factory in East Pittsburg, had a severe attack of grip, but he used Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pain Pills and was soon back in his place.

Rev. C. Body was in a serious condition at his home in St. Paris, O., but Dr. Miles' Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills pulled him through all right.

EX-KING MILAN IS DEAD.

Former Ruler of Serbia Passes Away at Vienna.

Vienna, Feb. 12.—Ex-King Milan of Serbia is dead.

Belgrade, Serbia (via Semlin, Hungary), Feb. 12.—King Alexander has set out for Vienna to visit his father, ex-King Milan, who is seriously ill with inflammation of the lungs, his condition being such as to cause great alarm.

Milan I., ex-king of Serbia, was born Aug. 22, 1854. He was the son of Milos Obrenovic and succeeded to the throne as Prince Milan Obrenovic IV., and was confirmed by the election of the Serbian national assembly, after the assassination of his uncle, Prince Michail Obrenovic III., on June 10, 1888. He was crowned prince of Belgrade and assumed the government Aug. 22, 1872. He was proclaimed king on March 9, 1882.

King Milan was married Oct. 17, 1875, to Natalie, daughter of Col. Keschko, of the Russian imperial guard. The queen was born in 1859. She was divorced from her royal husband Oct. 24, 1888. Their only offspring is a son, Alexander, the present king, who was born Aug. 14, 1878.

Two wars made Milan's reign memorable. In 1877 he attacked Turkey, when the intervention of Russia saved his principality from being reabsorbed by the victorious power. In 1886 Milan was defeated in a war with Bulgaria.

In 1882 a woman fired at him twice in the cathedral at Belgrade, his capital. The king was unhurt. His assailant was the widow of a colonel who had been executed by his orders more than four years previously for rioting.

TO CURE THE GRIP.

Advice of a Famous Physician.

First and foremost, rest. Take care of yourself. Your already weakened nerves want rest, and must have it. If the attack is severe go to bed and remain there. More fatalities result from neglect of this precaution than from any other cause.

Eat sparingly. Your digestive organs are in no condition to take care of the large quantities of food. Drink plenty of pure cold water.

It always the fever, stimulates the kidneys to action and opens up the pores of the skin. Keep the bowels open with Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills.

Take three doses of Dr. Miles' Nervine per day, and if you cannot sleep take an extra dose at bed time. To overcome the fever and to overcome the peculiar aches and pains of the grip, use Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. They act quickly and effectually, and no bad effects result from their use. Address at Gettysburg.

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the purpose that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting-place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground. The great men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we be highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.—LINCOLN.

UNEXPECTED OPPOSITION.

A mare's nest has been unearthed at Madison in the shape of a circular letter emanating from Darlington and signed by George West, one of the delegates to the Republican state convention. The letter is addressed to other delegates and states in substance that the writer voted for the primary election plank in the platform without due knowledge, and he is of the opinion that many other delegates did the same. He has decided that his action was hasty and asks other delegates who are of the same opinion to join him in a remonstrance to the legislature.

Mr. West further states that he would rather be right than inconsistent, and that 90 per cent. of the people that he has talked with about the proposed law are opposed to it.

The friends of the law accuse the federal office holders and United States senators with the responsibility of the opposition, using Mr. West as a scape goat.

Whoever is responsible for the opposition, there is no question about its existence, and it is extremely unfortunate for the party that the enthusiastic friends of the measure have called it out, by attempting to force its passage through the legislature, without giving time for free and intelligent discussion. The legislature is the servant of the people, elected for the express purpose of carrying out the wishes of the people. The primary law contemplates a radical change.

It may be a wise law, or it may be unwise. In either case the people have a perfect right to discuss it, and if the discussion is liable to be cut short by hasty legislation they have a perfect right to denounce it by petition or any other honorable method. It has been suggested that a compromise be effected either by the passage of the law subject to the approval of the people, or by applying it to some city or county where its workings can be tested. Either experiment would satisfy the people and ought to satisfy the servants of the people. But there seems to be a disposition to go it rough shod, and the state is not accustomed to this kind of treatment and will not submit very kindly to it.

It might be helpful to the legislature to keep in mind the fact that all the wishes of the state is not confined within the walls of the capitol building. There is a very large constituency outside, representing several political parties, and a great variety of interests. The proposed law is a republican measure, but if enacted it becomes the people's law. The people regardless of party have a perfect right to discuss it, and approve or denounce it as their judgment dictates. The legislature will do well to postpone the applause and criticism until later in the session and then if the sounds are so confusing that they are unable to determine, submit the question to the people for popular verdict. The effort to throw the responsibility on a few federal office holders will fall flat as it deserves to.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

The American people are glad to honor the memory of Abraham Lincoln by turning aside from the busy activities of life once a year, and observing in various ways the anniversary of his birth. And so, all over the land today, in colleges, schools and societies, in publishing offices, and at firesides, thought has turned back, and the life of the greatest man, in many respects that the country has ever produced, has been hastily reviewed.

Much has been said and written about this great American, in the way of eulogy. His public utterances have been carefully preserved and frequently reproduced, until some of them have become household words. His life, from the humble home of his boyhood, through the struggle into manhood, and on into years when he stood out in strong relief as the central figure of the nation, has been so faithfully and frequently portrayed that almost every child is familiar with the story.

The portrayal has served as an inspiration, and American life beats with stronger pulse, and purer ambition because of the impress of the grand life of Abraham Lincoln.

Ambassador Choate says of him that his memory will live for a thousand years, with untarnished lustre. Mr. Lincoln was not only a great man, but a good man, possessing a heart that beat in sympathy with humanity, and living a life so closely in touch with the common people, that he never seemed beyond their grasp. He was a man without pretensions, a Christian without a creed, and yet enjoying to the fullest extent the confidence that his every-day life inspired.

Schooled in the great university of life, possessing clear insight, broad comprehension, originality of thought and action, and endowed with good, common sense, he was equal to the demands of the hour, at a time when the nation needed the man more sorely than at any period in its history.

His old home at Springfield is said to be visited every year by 50,000 people who make the pilgrimage out of respect to his memory. A throng of as many millions delight to pay homage at a shrine made sacred by the record of his life, and made tragic by the incidents of his death. The martyred president will live with the nation, and the generations yet unborn will rise to call his name blessed.

THE HALL BILL.

In another column will be found a protest against what is known as the Hall railroad bill. The bill is very voluminous, but the single section No. 3, is enough to condemn it in the minds of business men. The bill may have some redeeming features, but life is too short to discover them. The state is entitled to better treatment. The erratic assemblyman in his effort to annoy corporations has overstepped himself, and the passage of the bill would result in grave disaster to the state. The good sense of the legislature will prevent its ever becoming a law.

Wisconsin has no industries to lose and the state certainly wants to be in a position to encourage new enterprises.

The bill is to be argued before the committee on the 21st inst., and in the meantime the business men of the state should enter a lively protest against its passage.

RUSSIAN ENGINE.

Largest at Paris Exposition—Has Twelve Driving Wheels.

The most remarkable Russian engine in the Paris exposition is the gigantic twelve wheeled double six-coupled duplex compound on a modification of the Mallet system and bearing the number H. 810. This is by far the biggest and heaviest engine in the whole exhibition, weighing as it does eighty-six tons and having a vast forty-six-ton tender appended, the total weight of tender and engine being therefore no less than 132 tons, while the top of the chimney stands 9 feet 9 inches above the rail level. This mighty locomotive is constructed on the articulated plan, the four-foot driving wheels being coupled in two groups of six each, one being practically a steam bogie, while each group is driven by one high-pressure and one low-pressure cylinder, the respective diameters being 18 1/2 inches and 28 inches, says the Engineering Magazine. In the case of this particular engine, more may be said on behalf of the complex system of articulation employed than in the case of the smaller but similar locomotive. The Russian twelve-wheeler is intended for the haulage of immense loads, and the ascent of steep grades. It is essential to the development of its full usefulness that it should be able to utilize its entire adhesive weight for traction and that this weight should be distributed as widely as possible upon the rails without such distribution involving an undue length of rigid wheelbase.

Beautiful Electric Fountain.

A new electric fountain has been devised. The idea is to combine tableaux-vivants with a display of brilliantly illuminated pouring water. A fountain of this kind has been built at Heine Park, Kansas City. In the center there is a platform for persons who are to impersonate various statues and groups. Outside of this circular platform are jets which are illuminated by electric lights. The space in the center being dry, pyrotechnic display will be used in conjunction with the aquatic figures.

NEW ARMY RATION.

Ingredients Secret, but Believed to Include Beef, Wheat, Salt and Chocolate.

As the result of an exhaustive test, conducted under actual conditions of military service, an emergency ration has been obtained for the United States army superior to that used by the troops of any other nation.

This is the opinion of the board of officers designated to prepare a ration and examine others submitted and test them in comparison.

The ration which developed, the greatest merit was adopted for trial by the board after the most careful consideration of the several elements comprising it. The board examined the celebrated iron ration of Germany and the emergency ration of Great Britain. The one, in the opinion of Captain Fountain, would be eaten by men only when on the verge of starvation. The other weighs more than two pounds and is consequently almost as heavy as the regular ration of the American army.

The ration of the board was tested for five days, and an equally long trial was given to two rations submitted by private persons.

The components of the ration prepared by the board have not been made public, but it is believed to contain powdered beef, parched wheat, salt and chocolate.

With a detachment of 25 men, physically fit, of Troop A, Eighth cavalry, Captains Fountain and Foster left Fort Reno early in November and for three days lived on the regular army ration. Then officers and men started on the emergency ration test. The men were required to march 20 miles each day and perform the usual routine incident upon field service. At the expiration of five days officers and men were weighed. The average loss of weight sustained was found to be about two pounds, and the men returned to their post in good physical condition.

Another detachment of 25 men of Troop A went out two days later under command of Captains Fountain and Foster. After three days' use of the regular army ration the test of the second emergency ration began. Cases of dysentery occurred. The test of the third emergency ration, under the same conditions, gave the same results.

In order that there might be no question as to the value of the first ration, detachments of 25 men from Fort Reno and 25 from Fort Sill left these two posts and arranged to meet at a point equally distant under various conditions of service. They seemed to relish it and suffered no diminution of vigor.

CANADA'S GAINS.

Great Progress Made by the Dominion in Recent Years.

The greatest financial year in Canadian history has just closed. Within the last twelve months there has accrued to Canadian stockholders and depositors, in the shape of dividends and interest, upward of $21,000,000, and of this sum it is estimated that about $7,000,000 was due and payable last week. In 1893 Canadian sales to Britain amounted to $33,500,000, and in 1898 they had almost trebled. Meantime the general exterior trade has also been on the increase, so that where there was a total trade of $131,000,000 in the first year of confederation, in the year just ended there was attained a total of over $372,000,000. Interior trade has kept pace with these great gains. Canada had 2,278 miles of railway in 1868, and 17,250 miles in 1899. In 1868 the people of Canada had on deposit in the chartered banks $33,317,879; in 1899 they had the remarkable total of $258,402,340. In the savings banks there was on deposit in 1868 $4,360,692; in 1899 the amount was $66,135,282. The money placed at discount by the banks was, in 1868, $51,966,120; in 1899 it was $283,713,338.

Gambling in London.

One of the greatest recognized evils of London which the Christian and business element are preparing to attack is that of gambling. The Christian says: "It has recently been stated authoritatively that there are no fewer than 5,000 professional bookmakers daily engaged in their injurious trade, and that their regular clients exceed half a million; and when it is remembered that every town has its betting clubs, some idea may be formed of the extent of the evil and of the amount of misery resulting from it."

SMITH SISTERS AT Y. M. C. A. BUILDING

A Concert That Left Little To Be Desired—By All Odds the Best of the Course.

The Ariel Ladies' sextet in other words the six Smith sisters who gave a vocal concert at the Y. M. C. A. building last night represent a family that nature has blessed with a rich gift of music, and they have cultivated the gift so that it is a source of pleasure to all within the sound of their voices.

There is nothing prefatory or stereotyped about their singing and not a trace of affectation. They sing largely because they are obliged to by reason of the force of their natural gift and the sing with a vigor and a full voiced enthusiasm that produces a very different effect from the conventional concert vocalist.

The first number was "Il Bacio," arranged for the sextet by Miss Gertrude. She carried the air in her high rich soprano introducing sweet clarinet and trombone tones while all the others took the lower parts and made a substratum on which her voice might rest if needed such support, which it did not. The opening number showed what the sextet was capable of and they never dropped below that high standard.

During part first Miss Olive sang a plantation song with a humming accompaniment by the other five. Her voice was well suited to this type of music which went straight to the heart of the audience and she was enthusiastically recalled. In response she gave two stanzas of Massala's in the Cold, Cold Ground. Her rendition was peculiarly sweet and sympathetic and to make it even more effective one of the five girls standing behind her sang an imitation banjo accompaniment which could hardly be distinguished from the genuine. The delight of the audience knew no bounds and she was again recalled and repeated the chorus.

If Miss Marguerite is surpassed as a child impersonator by anyone before the American public Janesville audiences are not aware of the fact. She gave a little boy's story of a bear tree climbing event, made up as she went along, with great effect. In response to an encore she told a pathetic story of two infants who had run away from home to seek their fortunes. It was very unpretentious, but it touched a popular chord.

The entire program was excellent and the audience insisted on doubling it. The two rooms were crowded almost to suffocation, the chairs being set so close that once in it was next to impossible to get out. Had anyone faint ed it is hard to say what would have transpired. But the concert was delightful which was the main thing, and everyone was delighted enough to run any ordinary risk.

He Was an Early Settler and One of the Best Known Men in This Section of the State.

Mr. Mole was a quiet industrious man who by strict attention to business has accumulated a valuable property. He was an extensive grower of tobacco and also operated a large dairy farm. He has many friends scattered throughout the country who will be pained to hear of his death. He leaves a wife and a half brother located in California. Notice of the funeral will be given later.

MAP-MAKING.

Involves Patient Research and a Big Expenditure of Money.

The exploration of three-fourths of our vast domain has been the work of our government and private citizens. In a broad sense it has been well done, and in the past twenty-one years it has been succeeded by detailed studies and surveys which should be specially mentioned, for they are a phase of exploration which has been carried out on a large scale only in the nineteenth century, and which is essential to the production of the most accurate maps. No topographic features or town or the distribution of economic resources can be mapped with the greatest attainable accuracy till these surveys are made. They involve, first, the preparation of a topographic map showing the relief or inequalities of the surface, the drainage and the works of man, such as roads, railroads, boundaries, and towns; second, the geologic map, printed in colors upon the topographic base map, showing the distribution of the rock formation, soils, useful minerals, artesian waters, etc. These surveys and the resulting maps are one of the most scientific developments of geographic research in this century, says Cassier's Magazine. They have been completed in all countries of Europe except in Norway, Spain, Turkey and some of the Balkan states. The great survey of India is one of the monuments of cartography and similar surveys are far advanced in Algeria and Tunis. The topographic work has been carried by our general government, with the assistance of a few states, into all the states and territories and nearly a third of our entire area has now been completed. The labor is enormous and costly.

LINCOLN DAY IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Portrait of Great Emancipator is Exhibited and Questions Relating to His Life Answered.

Lincoln day was generally observed throughout the city schools, especially in the grades. In the opening exercise a short period was devoted to a brief sketch of his life. In some of the departments the pupils were called upon for some of the most important facts of his administration as president. In others some of the children reproduced some of his epigrammatic sayings.

In all of the rooms the portrait was exhibited and even the youngest children were made familiar with his features and taught to regard him as one of the very greatest American statesmen and patriots. Such lessons cannot be too early or too deeply impressed upon the minds of school children.

MUSICAL-LITERARY SOCIETY MEETING

Changes Made in the Evening's Program Which Was Nevertheless Excellent.

The Musical-Literary society discussed the works of modern German composers and also gave both vocal and instrumental selections from their works at their meeting held last evening at Christ church parish house. The meeting was well attended and was thoroughly enjoyed although the published program was not strictly adhered to.

In the absence of Mrs. Paris, her paper on the lives of Kullback, Brassin, Stavenhagen and Bargiel was read by Mrs. Pember. In place of the cyclus, Lenz and Liebe, the quartet consisting of Mrs. Carroll, Miss Palmer, Mr. Garbutt and Mr. Paris sang My Love Is Like the Red, Red Rose. Mr. Paris also sang Sleep On in addition to the number assigned him on the program.

Several of the piano numbers and one vocal number was omitted but the program did not fall far short of decided excellence.

THE BOERS MINE RAILWAY.

British Officer and Two Kaffirs Killed.

A PEACE OFFER IS URGED.

Sir Edward Clarke Pleads for an Honorable Settlement—Declares That Unconditional Surrender of the Boers Is as Remote as Ever.

Pretoria, Feb. 12.—The Boers mined the railway near Middelburg, Transvaal, and a British officer and two Kaffirs who were proceeding by trolley were killed by the explosion. The Natal railway line is again clear.

London, Feb. 12.—Sir Edward Clarke, the former solicitor-general, following up his speech on Feb. 7 before the Holborn Conservative association, has written a letter to a friend, citing Lord Roberts' rejection of the opportunity to propose peace terms in June, 1900, when Gen. Buller had prepared the way by conferences with Christian Botha, who asked what was offered. Lord Roberts replies:

"Unconditional surrender, the private to be allowed to go to their farms, no promises to the commanders or to any who have taken an active part in bringing on the war."

"This," said Sir Edward Clarke, "put an end to all negotiations. So the war has gone on. The losses since have been 124 officers and 1,454 men killed in action and died of wounds; 63 officers and 3,620 men died of disease, and 953 officers and 22,635 men invalided home. We have spent from £60,000,000 to £70,000,000 devastating a country over which we desire to rule. We do not seem a day nearer 'unconditional surrender' than seven months ago."

Sir Edward Clarke then says he earnestly hopes terms acceptable without dishonor will be offered to the Boers.

Heroine of Peking a Bride.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 12.—With as little ostentation as was possible, with one so widely known and admired as was the bride of the day, the wedding of Miss Mary Ogden Condit-Smith and Lieutenant Richard Stewart Hooker of the Marine Corps, was solemnized at noon at the Church of the Epiphany. The bride is the youngest of the four daughters of the late Condit-Smith, and, like her sisters, Mrs. Leonard Wood, wife of the governor-general of Cuba; Mrs. Key, wife of Lieutenant Key of Tokyo, Japan; and Mrs. Cyrus Fleid Judson of New York, has been a most popular belle. She has traveled extensively in Europe and was a prisoner in those never-to-be-forgotten days in Peking. She seems to have entirely recovered from the horrors of the long siege.

Wilhelmina to McKinley.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 12.—The following messages have passed between Queen Wilhelmina and the president: "Her Majesty, Wilhelmina, Queen of the Netherlands, Sgravenhage: I pray your majesty to accept the sincere congratulations I offer for myself and my countrymen upon the auspicious occasion of your majesty's marriage.

"WILLIAM MCKINLEY." "President of the United States, Washington: I offer your excellency and the people of the United States my most sincere thanks for the warm congratulations offered me upon the occasion of my marriage. I appreciate your hearty good wishes very highly. "WILHELMINA."

Smallpox in Lebanon Jail.

Lebanon, Ill., Feb. 12.—Smallpox has appeared in the St. Clair county jail. The prisoner afflicted is Sterling Winstead, indicted for attempt to murder. He was sent to jail from East St. Louis ten days ago. There are sixty prisoners in jail, all of whom were exposed, and there is great excitement among them. The negro prisoners have been rubbing their hands and faces with rabbits' feet in the hope that this will ward off the disease. Sheriff Kickham has moved out of the jail in anticipation of a possible quarantine.

Prize Fight in Court's Hands.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 12.—It is not expected there will be a decision in the injunction suit before Judge Hollister until Thursday. The day was taken up in arguments by the different attorneys and Judge Harmon made a most sensational speech. At 6 o'clock the oral contest closed, but no decision is expected for a couple of days.

Mrs. Maybrick Not Pardoned. London, Feb. 12.—The officials of the home office say there is no foundation whatever for the report that Mrs. Florence Maybrick has been pardoned.

Desert Mrs. Nation.

Muscatine, Ia., Feb. 12.—Mrs. Nation arrived here at noon, and was met at the train by 4,000 people. A squad of police was on hand at her request to escort her to the hotel. The crowd, however, was peaceable and quiet, and evidently turned out through curiosity, for less than 500 persons attended her meeting at the Grand opera-house. After the meeting closed and the receipts of the evening were counted A. C. Rankin, the financial manager of Mrs. Nation, dissolved partnership with her, and, with four of the six women who accompany her, will return to Kansas.

Day Murder Case Sensation.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 12.—Miss Carrie Slagle, "the woman in the case," took the stand at the trial of Frank H. Hamilton for the murder of Leonard Day. Under a ruling of the court, however, that she need not testify if communications passing between Hamilton and Day and herself would incriminate her, she declined to testify. She occupied the stand only ten minutes. Her course was a severe blow to the prosecution.

Dies to Escape a Mob's Rope.

Crested Butte, Col., Feb. 12.—While a mob was besieging the jail here and threatening to lynch George Burie he committed suicide by hanging himself to a bar in his cell with an electric light wire. Burie was arrested on a charge of having assaulted Kate Muehlich, 12 years of age. He declared he was innocent.

Two Killed in an Explosion.

Menominee Falls, Wis., Feb. 12.—An accident at the Champagne creamery, in the town of Lisbon, caused the death of two men. Several others are injured, and one perhaps fatally. The dead are: Edward Wirth, farmer; James Pyburn, creamery man. William Butler was probably fatally injured.

His Fifth Bride Is 65.

Poplar Bluffs, Mo., Feb. 12.—B. F. Parks and Mrs. Louisa C. Williams, both of Harvill, this county, were married by Probate Judge Deem. The groom is 58 and the bride 65 years of age. This was Mr. Parks' fifth matrimonial venture, and the third for Mrs. Williams.

Burns Man to Get His Cash.

Mansfield, O., Feb. 12.—Six robbers entered the home of John Duncan, an aged and wealthy farmer, near McKay, Ashland county, yesterday morning, bound the five members of the family and tortured Duncan by applying matches to his feet until he gave up $450. They also secured four watches and some silverware. The robbers then went to the barn of Godfrey Keogler, about two miles away, where they hitched up a team to a sleigh. Two of the fellows started across the country toward Loudenville on foot, while the other four got into the sleigh and drove to this city, where all trace of them was lost.

Hospital Nurses on Trial.

New York, Feb. 12.—The trial of the three Bellevue nurses indicted for first degree manslaughter for the killing of Louis R. Hilliard on Dec. 12 last, while he was a patient in the insane pavilion at Bellevue, was begun today in the court of general sessions, Judge Cowing presiding.

The defendants are Edward O. Dean, Clinton L. Marshall and Jesse R. Davis. The coroner's jury found the three men responsible for Hilliard's death, which was caused by the fracture of three ribs and other injuries.

Erie, Pa., Feb. 12.—Bitten and scratched by a pet cat until she became unconscious, Mrs. Frank Fisher will die. Two weeks ago the animal attacked her viciously and bit savagely at her neck, digging its claws deep into her flesh. Mrs. Fisher screamed, but could not beat the animal off. When assistance came she was unconscious. Blood poisoning set in. There is no hope for her recovery.

SHOT IN A PRIMARY RIOT.

Bloody Scenes in the Missouri Metropolis.

POLICEMAN AMONG WOUNDED.

During the Excitement Attending the Fustilade of Arms the Ballot Box Is Stolen—Twenty-Five Alleged Repeaters Arrested—Two Negroes Shot.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 12.—More than 150 shots were fired, a sergeant of police and two negroes were wounded, and a ballot box was stolen during a riot about the Second district polling place of the Fourth ward, at Twelfth and Linden streets, last evening. It was only after a riot call had brought Capt. Kiely with forty policemen and riot guns to the scene that a semblance of order was restored. Even then the streets were filled with negroes and white men, all of whom were armed, many of them intoxicated, and looking for trouble. The wounded are: Sergeant Quinlan of the Fourth district police, shot in the right leg; George Monroe, colored, shot in the right arm; Fred Jones, colored, shot in left leg. The trouble had been brewing all afternoon. When it came time to open up the polls the Tinker judges had not arrived. Later the Tinker men disagreed with the Wells men as to the advisability of opening the back door of the polling place. One faction claimed that the other had a host of heels in waiting, and if the back door was opened these men would press in to cause confusion and prevent their opponents from voting. The Noonan crowd claimed that both the other factions were trying to prevent any voting, because the ward was overwhelmingly Noonan. The judges being unable to agree, no voting was done. That was the situation up to the time of the riot.

Negro Begins the Shooting.

The first shot was fired in Twelfth street, just south of Linden. The first man to draw a revolver, it is said, was a negro named Arthur Gardiner. As soon as the shot rang out the street about the polling place became the scene of a fusillade. Every man drew one or two revolvers. Judge John J. Ryan ran out from his desk to the street and shot squarely at a negro advancing upon the booth, gun in hand. There was no time to make arrests, but the police under Sergt. Quinlan rushed upon the bolder rioters, attempting to disarm them. It was while he was arresting George Monroe, who had resisted the attempt to disarm him, that Sergt. Quinlan was shot. The bullet severed an artery. Ten policemen were on the spot within a few moments and succeeded in quelling the riot and dispersing the 200 negroes who had figured most prominently in the affray.

Stealing the Ballot Box.

After order had been restored it was found that the ballot box had been stolen. Every judge and clerk had been at the windows or front door holding the fort. Some one had slipped in the back way and taken the box from behind them. The upshot was that no votes were polled in the Second district of the Fourth ward at the city primaries.

Alleged Repeaters from Chicago.

Twenty-five men, who say they are from Chicago, were arrested during the day and lodged in jail. The police suspect they were brought to St. Louis to be used as repeaters in the Democratic primary election. Information reached the police Sunday night through David Perry, a Chicago saloonkeeper, that a large party of men had left that city for St. Louis, with the expressed intention of taking part in the primaries here. The police say the arrangements for bringing the men to St. Louis were made by two candidates for nomination to the house of delegates. Acting upon the advice from Chicago, the entire detective force of the police department was sent out to locate the men, resulting in the arrest of twenty-five. Rolla Wells will be nominated by the Democratic city convention for mayor. He swept twenty-three of the twenty-eight wards at the primaries.

Shot an Exulting Englishman.

The British and the Boers at Pieters Hill were crouching behind bowlders scattered over a wide surface. The moment a man on either side emerged from his cover he was at once the target of the enemy's bullets. A Boer, partly, it seemed, in bravado, made a sudden sally to join a neighbor. An Englishman who had long watched the rock and was becoming sick with hope deferred, took aim and brought the daring one down. So delighted was he with his luck that he threw himself on his back behind the shallow shelter of his bowlder and kicked his heels into air. In his transport his heel rose above the rock, as he was instantly made aware by a bullet transfixing his fluttering ankle.—New York Tribune.

"Oh! Dear I'm so Tired."

The ordinary every-day life of most of our women is a ceaseless treadmill of work.

How much harder the daily tasks become when some derangement of the female organs makes every movement painful and keeps the nervous system all unstrung!

One day she is wretched and utterly miserable; in a day or two she is better and laughs at her fears, thinking there is nothing much the matter after all; but before night the deadly backache reappears, the limbs tremble, the lips twitch—it seems as though all the imps of Satan were clutching her vitals; she goes to pieces and is flat on her back.

No woman ought to arrive at this terrible state of misery, because these symptoms are a sure forerunner of womb troubles. She must remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is almost an infallible cure for all female ills, such as irregularity of periods, which cause weak stomach, sick headache, etc., displacements and inflammation of the womb, or any of the multitudes of illnesses which beset the female organism.

Mrs. Gooden wrote to Mrs. Pinkham when she was in great trouble. Her letter tells the result.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am very grateful to you for your kindness and the interest you have taken in me, and truly believe that your medicines and advice are worth more to a woman than all the doctors in the world. My troubles began with inflammation and hemorrhages from the kidneys, then inflammation, congestion and falling of the womb, and inflammation of the ovaries. I underwent local treatment every day for some time; then, after nearly two months, the doctor gave me permission to go back to work. I went back, but in less than a week was compelled to give up and go to bed. On breaking down the second time, I decided to let doctors and medicines alone and try your remedies. Before the first bottle was gone I felt the effects of it. Three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash did me more good than all the doctors' treatments and medicine. I have gained twelve pounds during the last two months and am better in every way. Thanking you for your kind advice and attention, I remain, Yours gratefully, "MRS. E. J. GOODEN, Ackley, Iowa."

Bursting a Bomb.

Fill an iron shell quite full of water, plug it very tightly, and then place it in a temperature cold enough to freeze the water—and what will happen? Like most bodies the iron will shrink with the cold, and there will be even less room for the water; but water, when it freezes expands, and the liquid in the shell, when it becomes solid, will need one-fifteenth more space than it had at first. One of two things must therefore occur; either the plug will be expelled, or the bomb will burst. In one case an iron plug, weighing more than three pounds, was actually ejected to a distance of 323 yards.

HER RIGHT

"Nora."

The girl blushed a bright pink, but does not appear to resent his familiarity.

"Nora," he repeats, taking hold of the little hand in his, "you know already what I would say, do you not, my darling? Nora, I love you; love you more, I think, than ever man loved before. Nora, will you be my wife?"

The blue eyes were raised for one second, and in their misty radiance Jack Dalton read his answer.

"Nora," broke in a voice in tones of measured severity, which made Nora start like a guilty creature. "I have been looking for you everywhere. Nora, Mr. Pontifex has arrived unexpectedly at home and apparently from what I can gather does not wish to meet you first here. So of course you will at once leave and."

"I do not see why, Gladys," said Nora, but her voice trembled, and her fair face was very white.

"Then allow others to judge of what is right and sitting under the circumstances," said Mrs. Hastings sharply. "I have made your apologies to Mrs. Pelham. She quite understands the circumstances. Run quickly and get your cloak."

As the girl goes reluctantly forward Jack Dalton makes a hasty step toward her, but Mrs. Hastings gently detains him.

"Pardon me," she said in a soft voice in which there is a slight ring of pity, "but I cannot but fear you do not quite know the facts about my little sister. If you have been led to think anything from her manner, I am sorry, but it happens so often. Naughty child! She is a sad flirt."

Mrs. Hastings gave a gentle, amused laugh, which died suddenly as her eyes fell on Jack's white, stern face.

"Excuse me," he said in a haughty tone, "but I do not understand what you are endeavoring to convey to me. Why does the advent of this gentleman appear so important to her, and?"

"Ah, it is as I said. You do not understand the facts," laughed Mrs. Hastings. "They are briefly these: Nora is engaged to Mr. Pontifex, has been since the end of the season, and they are to be married in the autumn."

"The place seemed to swim round Jack's eyes, but, with a firm resolve not to be beaten, he set his teeth hard and, with absolute composure, surveyed Nora as she returned to her sister's side.

"Is this true?" he demanded, and his voice to himself sounded far away. "Is it true that you are now going to meet your affianced husband?" Nora looked up, startled, into his white, stern face.

"I—I—" she faltered, but her voice broke, and she turned away.

"That is answer sufficient," he returned. "I fully indorse your sister's sentiment, Miss Carew—you are a sad flirt!"

With a harsh laugh he turned away as Nora, white and trembling, followed Mrs. Hastings to their carriage, leaving him standing alone, desolate amid the wealth of flowers and sweet scents, a bitter, broken hearted man.

"I have come for my answer, Nora," said Mr. Pontifex in his calm, measured voice.

Something in his assured confidence made the girl flush with sudden anger.

"By what right do you call me by my name?" she asked passionately, and as her eyes dwell on his complacent, uninteresting face the girl tells herself she hates him.

"By what right? My dear Nora, surely your future husband may"—He ends abruptly, for Nora's eyes are flashing with uncontrolled rage.

"My future husband!" she exclaimed. "Never! By what right have you followed me about, tortured me so, the last few months? I never liked you; never said I would marry you. How dare you try to imply that you were ever treated by me with more than ordinary civility?"

"Your sister"—he says, but with more unhesitatingness in his assured tones.

"My sister is not me, Mr. Pontifex. She apparently thinks she can dispose of me as she chooses. I claim the right to choose for myself in the most important, holiest act of a woman's life. Mr. Pontifex, I have chosen, and may I ask you to be generous enough in the future, when we meet, to abstain from remarks save those of ordinary civility?"

With a bow a young empress might have given Nora swept from the room.

She felt choked, suffocating with conflicting emotions.

"Oh, for some air!" she cried and catching up her hat she ran from the house down the garden to the downs beyond, where she paused, exhausted, by a large clump of trees.

As she raised her head at a sudden rustling a man came quickly from within the thicket, and Nora confronted Jack Dalton. Haggard, white, unshaven, he looked aged by many years from the handsome Jack Dalton of the night before.

I never even liked him, but Gladys wanted me to marry him, and—and I cared for no one else. And one day before we came here, when he had wearied me out, I said I would give him an answer three months later. The three months aren't yet, Jack, but he came down yesterday, and I told him today that I could never be his wife. Oh, Jack, if you are going away today, say goodbye to me kindly, for—I love you, Jack!"

There was an instant's pause, and then, ah, Jack's strong arms were round the little weeping figure, and her wet face was pressed to his.—Exchange.

Mr. Hayseed—These New Yorkers just rush themselves to death. Why on earth do they kill themselves that way?

Mrs. Hayseed—Land snakes, they've got to! Think of the rents they pay!—New York Weekly.

Choice of Letters.

"I think I shall adopt letters as a profession," observed the party with the bulging brow.

"Typewriting or sign painting?" inquired the sardonic person.—Baltimore American.
